COUNTRY STRATEGY FY24-27

Jordan

Vision: Enhance resilient and inclusive communities through the development of stronger market systems, more efficient water and energy management practices, and greater voice.

Country Population

Female labor force participation rate in Jordan is below 15%

The second most water scarce country in the world, less than 100 m³ per person annual renewable water

Over 100,000 Small and Medium Enterprises make up more than 50% of the country's GDP

CLIMATE SMART

climate impacts

Outcomes

ECONOMIC OPPORTUNITY

Goal: Foster a dynamic and diversified economy that generates sustainable, inclusive growth and job creation

- Improved market linkages locally, regionally, and internationally
- Enhanced managerial capacity among individuals and enterprises

L

· Increased access to decent and equitable income generation opportunities

PEACE AND GOOD GOVERNANCE

Goal: Strengthen and support communities to be more resilient, inclusive, and economically independent

- Increased opportunities and alternatives to violence for youth
- Greater cohesion between communities and among different groups
- Meaningful participation by women and youth in governance and peace processes

INNOVATIVE AND CREATIVE

Mainstream climate-smart adaptation risks and build community resilience to in programing to mitigate climate change

Foster a culture of creativity and innovation, experimentation, and learning to find innovative solutions and approaches

WATER SECURITY

Goal: Promote equitable access to safe and sufficient water through sustainable and efficient water management practices

- Improved water governance across communities, local, and national governments
- Enhanced sustainability of water resources
- Effectively managed water sector through engaged and empowered stakeholders

Commitments

LOCALLY LED

Expand decision-making opportunities for team members, communities, and civil society and government partners

Pathways to Impact

PROGRAMMING

Increased integration of market systems development approaches to prioritize scalable changes

PARTNERSHIPS

Expand partnerships with local actors from government entities, private sector, communities, and civil society

INFLUENCE

Provide leadership in the humanitarian- developmentpeacebuilding nexus in Jordan

